SUBJECT: MAURITIUS 'LIKE MINDED' ON IAEA BOARD SEAT

REF: STATE 99746

¶1. (SBU) Post delivered reftel objectives to Ministry of Foreign Affairs First Secretary, Ms. Martine Young Kim Fat on September 19, and had a follow up meeting with Young Kim Fat on September 24. Young Kim Fat informed POLOFF that she personally agreed with USG points about blocking Syria and Iran from the board and that she would convey this when she delivered USG points to the concerned Mauritian voting parties.

¶2. (SBU) As for the other reftel demarche points, Young Kim Fat said that the official responsible for voting, Mr. Rajcoomar Bikoo, Director of Technical Services at the Ministry of Public Utilities, along with her Ministry are just now considering this vote, and that USG timing was perfect. She says that the USG demarche was the first and only outside request received thus far and that all points will be taken into account.
